Vol. 1 Friday, February 16 STOW, OHIO No. 4

MINISTERS COLUMN... ..

I like the Community Church because it is cosmopolitan. It is made up from many schools of faith, yet when this scattered group merge there is something beautiful in the blend, to stand united on the great tenants of Christian faith.

A neighborhood of friends and acquaintances worshipping at one common shrine, free from the bondage of Denominationalism. I declare such a Church worthy of consideration. It savors of the home spirit, of devotion, of a sacred uplift that should always abound wherever a Church opens its doors to a lost world.

I like the Community Church at Stow because it is appreciative, a fine grace is appreciation, a recognition of value, one group is commending and speaking kindly of what another group is doing, that is as it should be.

I like the Community Church, it is friendly, just makes you feel at home, you want to come again.

I admire the rich young life I see at Stow Community Church. The bud is promise of fine fruit for the days to come.

The order and attendance during service is commendable, for this you have my personal thanks.

The fine spirit of the men is not unnoticed. They are busy, single and collectively, always casting about, keen and alert for any task that contributes to the Cause.

I wonder now how Mr. Zink would feel at the opening of the Bible School to find fifty people in the very front seats. A fine leader, Mr. Zink, come over and help him.

It is great to visit, but time is precious between the closing of school and beginning of the Church Service, take a front seat quickly and prepare for the service.

—George M. Hulme, Minister

PERSONAL NOTES—

The Sunday school orchestra held a preliminary meeting, last Sunday and the first practice, Tuesday, 7 p. m., at the church. They hope to make their first public appearance a week from Sunday.

The Trustees, Lodge, Phelps, DeRusha and Stockman (Creighton absent) met at the home of Mrs. DeRusha Thursday, February 8, 1934. Mr. Phelps was elected president, Stockman, secretary. The next meeting will be held Thursday evening, February 22, at the same place. The financial secretary, Mrs. Dunn, and the church treasurer, Mr. Stein, are requested to attend this meeting.

Paul Monteith will be glad to clean out and remove the papers or old magazines from your basement, attic, or any other place where you have them stored. He expects to make enough money to buy a new Buick or second-hand Ford. This is your opportunity to clean up your premises, help Paul buy a car, thereby giving the auto business a boost, cause Good-year to sell more tires, keeping Mr. Monteith and other Goodyear-ites employed, who in turn, will support your church, which will make people more faithful, hopeful and charitable. See how it works!

Erratum. The address of Furst Brothers grocery store was given in the last issue of this paper as 375 Hudson road. It should be 735. Besides buying your groceries at Furst Brothers, it is a place to congregate in the evenings, (open until 8 p. m.) County, state, national and world problems, politics, religion, local and national history are among the items nightly discussed and settled. If all those present at various times could be persuaded to come to S. S., our Men's class would need larger quarters.

Mr. Al Stein has a spiffy new Buick. The dairy business must be getting better.

We have a two-year old white rabbit, which has the pink-eye, (ever since she was a week old).

Roy Lowe works in Cleveland.

He comes home over the week-ends, attends Sunday school, church and C. E. regularly.

Mr. Smith gave a talk about the Bible at C. E. this last Sunday.

The Christian Endeavor topic for Sunday, February 18, is, "Non-Resistance." Leader, Will Shaffer.

June Viall has been appointed publicity director for the Christian Endeavor.

One of the coming events for the young people will be a party in a week or ten days. Don't forget.

The Sanner family had a siege of the flu last week.

George Dyke was at church Sunday. Bring your father next Sunday, George.

Paul Monteith visited in Ravenna for two days last week. On Saturday the rest of the family drove over and brought him home.

Wonder where Janett Willensen has been the past two or three Sundays?

Forrest Hawk has been sick. He was unable to attend choir practice last Wednesday.

Remember that April 1 is Easter. Come out for cantata rehearsal Wednesday night.

On that real warm morning last Friday, Mr. Monteith needed to have someone to pull his car out of the garage and get it started. Mr. Al Stein was the victim and Al had to get out of bed to do it. There were, of course, several others who could not get their cars started that morning, but they did not get their best friend out of bed to tow them.

Mrs. L. C. Stein has been in Coshocton county the past two weeks. Her husband drove down Tuesday and brought her back.

Oh, yes. And besides a new Buick, Al has a brand new Chevrolet truck.

Note to S. S. Supt. Don't forget to give Mrs. Judy a chance to put 40 cents in the birthday box this Sunday. She says she had her money ready last time, but did not get it in.

The men had 22 at Sunday school, Sunday. The ladies, 21, though some of the ladies claim the number should have been 23.

Miss Esther Woodring entertained a group of friends at her home, Tuesday night.

Russell Houck has a touch of arthritis in his foot, or some other place; not however, in his vocal chords, for he sang in the choir Sunday.

A surprise shower for Miss Elaine Neville is to be given at her home, Friday. (It may not be such a surprise if this paper gets out on time).

The subject of Sunday's sermon, "The Price of Power." That sounds good. All men please attend church Sunday.

Ask Mr. Lodge why he forgot to come to the last Church Night, supper. See what you think of his excuse.

C. M. Woodring worked five hours as printer last week. As it was his first experience at the press, his charges were nothing. Still, we are running behind. Bring on bigger and better ads. Call WA-9463.

Mr. Houck is one of our members who sells a complete line of spices, extracts and—oh, that reminds us—maybe we can trade him some advertising space for a bottle of cod liver oil. The baby should have some.

Who stole Mr. Smith's spats? He was without them Sunday. And, by the way, he has called off his suit for damages against us, and just to show how much we appreciate that, we expect to buy one of his Bibles soon.

Ladies: Don't forget Wednesday at the church. All you need to bring is 25 cents and a comic valentine.

In this issue the minister says Mr. Zink would be pleased if all Sunday school members would move further forward. Men, here is a chance to set a good example, and, without a doubt, Rev. Hulme would be much pleased if you would sit down front during church services.

Mr. Bauder will dig his Easter bulbs within the next week. These are tulips, hyacinths, etc., which are in pots buried outside, and when brought into the greenhouse will start to grow. He states that the ground is frozen to a depth of two feet, and therefore, he expects to have some real work to do when he digs them.

Rev. Hulme offered to sing one recent Sunday. Why not have Mrs. Hulme sing for us sometime?

Albert Case, a friend of James Cross, and also a radio fan, is a new member of our Sunday school.

Ever notice the dog pictures in Baughman's feed store? Mr. Baughman carries a complete line of dog remedies.

THE GUILD

Here's to the Guild, our women so fair,

Big ones, small ones, little-ones, rare.

There's the new president, Thomas by name,

Houck, Dunn and Lowe, will all acquire fame.

When this year has lapsed, the past will be tame,

With such fine officers head of the game.

There's Osman and Creighton, De-Rusha and Zink,

Many more could be mentioned, but stop and think

How you might enjoy your gatherings so fine,

Just lay aside work and fall into line,

We'll look for you at the very next meeting,

Come early, in time to enjoy the eating.

We hope you'll be there to take part in the fun,

Community church, February 21.
