CHRIST THE MINISTER OF BETTER THINGS

(The Sufficient Christ)

Printed Text Heb. 4:14-16; 7:26, 27; 9:23-26; 10:11-14.

No other division of New Testament scriptures gives us so much light on the meaning of the types portrayed, in the ceremonials of the Tabernacle worship, as the Epistle to the Hebrews. No other Old Testament scripture gives such a clear prepicture of the new covenant, and the church age, as the order of worship, the materials and arrangement of the furniture, of the tabernacle in the wilderness.

Our lesson for today, has to do with the part of the high priest in the tabernacle, as it typifies the spiritual high priest of the church age. It was not so much that the Lord desired mathematical precision or exactness of the material structure of the tabernacle, as it was because of the spiritual type portrayed, that He explicitly commanded Moses; "And look that thou make them after the pattern, which was showered thee in the mount." (Ex. 25:40.)

Only the high priest, on one day of the year, (the day of atonement) was permitted to enter the holiest room of the tabernacle, the holy of holies. This room, which was separated from the holy place by a curtain, called the vail, contained the ark of the covenant. The covering of the ark was called the mercy seat, and was made of one piece of solid gold. From this seat radiated the shekinah glory of God. This was the only light in the holy of holies.

It was into this room, with a great cloud of incense (a type of prayer) that the high priest entered, bearing the blood of the prescribed sacrifice, which he sprinkled before the mercy seat, to make an atonement for the sins of the congregation. This was the prepicture of the perfect sacrifice, which Jesus Christ offered, when He laid down His own life at Calvary, and presented His own blood before the true mercy seat in heaven, the one atonement necessary for our sin.

As we stated in last Sunday's lesson, since this one atonement is perfect, it need never be repeated. Therefore, our high priest could sit down, because his work was finished. Still better than that, He remained in the heavenlies, at the right hand of the Father, there to be our intercessor, when the "accuser of the brethren" brings any charge to God the Father, against any of His children.

We see also, that He can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities. How well He knows our trials, for we can never be tested in any way which He has not already experienced. He knows just how we feel and what to do. This intercession, on our behalf, is His work during the church age.

Knowing these facts about our high priest, we are exhorted to come boldly to "the throne of grace." Perhaps we need to remind ourselves that holy boldness is not presumption. Holy boldness indicates confidence, and also humility. We come humbly, because we realize our unworthiness. We realize, with the apostle Paul, that in our flesh dwelleth no good thing. But we come confidently because He has invited us to come, and we know His work can never fail.

The verse, which contains our Golden Text, immediately precedes the next portion of the printed text. I feel that we should quote the whole verse rather than just the portion printed. "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." Since He lives eternally, there can never come a time when his work of intercession will not be efficacious, for He will still be living when all mankind has gone from the earth.

Probably the best comment we can make on verses 23 through 26, of chapter nine, is to quote verse 22; "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without the shedding of blood is no remission." This verse is the best ammunition to use against the claims of anyone, who offers an unbloody way of salvation.

Last, we wish to call attention to the last verse of the printed text, which is verse 14, of chapter ten. Here we see that not only was one offering sufficient for all time, but that all they, who are separated unto God by that offering are made complete forever.

I trust we shall diligently, humbly, and reverently consider all these qualifications of this great high priest, who ever liveth to make intercession for us.

O. C. WALLACE

The Ladies Guild of Stow Community Church will meet Wednesday, day, October 15th noon, at the home of Mrs. Ellis Schroeder, Baumberger Road. Hostesses are Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Stockman, Mrs. Woodring and Miss Clara Gillam. Please bring a covered dish and your own table service. The afternoon will be spent in sewing. If you have no transportation call Mrs. Nichols, WA-0516.

THE CHURCH IN SILVER LAKE

Silver Lake Village

Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio

Sunday, October 12, 1947

10:00 The Church School, all departments, meeting in the Silver Lake School.

10:00 Morning Worship. The Rev. Bradley, F. Skinner will preach the first of a series of three sermons dealing with the proposed merger of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Subject this week: "Two Great Heritages."

2:00 Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the school to go by cars to the West Congregational Church in Akron for the Fall Rally of the Puritan Association Pilgrim Fellowship.

SHORT PAPER

The C. C. News will contain only eight or ten pages this week. A short supply of paper is one reason for this small size. Also next week our publication will be small and probably late. Reason: The editor expects to take another weeks vacation.

THE LAST CEREMONY

is arranged by us with courtesy and respect, with formal dignity and yet with human understanding. It is the Service of Sincerity.

Now that there is a new roof on the church building let us get the plastering on the ceiling inside repaired. Also speaking of the roof, trustees and members of the congregation would appreciate the return of the tile cap and ball which adorned the peak of the puola. The intention was to replace it in position when the new roof was laid. It was removed from the church premises one week-end while repair work was in progress. So, whoever has this item please take note—its return would be appreciated.

STOW HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Ruth Capra, elected by the student body as Homecoming Queen of 1947, will be crowned Friday afternoon, October 10. Ruth will be attended by Kathy Virginia Kerns, Gerry Walker, and Betty Weyrich. During half-time ceremonies at the Stow-Springfield game Ruth will be crowned by Bill Kimmel, captain of the football team. The Queen and her attendants will reign over the Homecoming Party to be held Saturday evening, October 11th, from 8:00 to 11:00 in the high school auditorium. The Student Government, the sponsor, with Bill Dillon as president, has obtained Ted Gooden's orchestra for the evening. This informal affair will be a great success if the Alumni come.

Last Thursday, October 2nd, during the first part of the morning the Home Economics girls took a tour thru Quaker Oats factory. They rode school buses into Akron. Mrs. Betty Dussel, home ec. teacher, accompanied them.

New members of Senior Hi-Y are Jim Orr, Melvin Roe, Dick Weyrich, Edgar Dally, and Terry Schneider, Juniors. The Seniors are Jim Mackey, Bob Knapp, Bill Brigg, John Springer, and Dale Vogel.

The National Beta Club. Last Spring the Y-Teen Club was dissolved and a charter was received from the National Beta Club. Girls who join receive a pin, membership card, certificate, Beta sticker, monthly magazine and Lifetime membership. Every girl is admitted to Beta on her own merits and her service to the school. She is not voted into the Club. To become a member she must keep her grades above passing and be willing to contribute her time and abilities to the club. The three outstanding Beta qualifications are honesty, leadership and service.
