If you should see me point with pride,
To a glob of paint upon my hide,
You should say, "That color's swell
My, you wear your paint so well".
Around the ankle, wrist or neck,
I can find each color speck -
A preview give, so friends can see
How decorated rooms will be.
The walls are fresh, the ceilings shine,
But I ran out of turpentine.

STOW YOUTH FOR CHRIST- HOLDS ATTENDANCE TROPHY

A rotating trophy has a good chance of finding a permanent home at Stow High if Youth for Christ members continue their attendance records at semi-monthly rallies. They've brought the trophy home from the last two rallies, and may keep it if their record stands high for the year.

A car caravan leaves the High School at 6:30 p.m., Saturday April 23, for the next rally at South High. All students are welcome to join the group.

COUNCIL ISSUES EMERGENCY ORDINANCE

BICYCLES MUST BE LICENSED BY JUNE 1

Councilman Larry Saltis introduced a bicycle ordinance for the Village of Stow at Village Council meeting April 14. Council passed this ordinance as an emergency measure. This ordinance will protect the bicycle owner in case of theft for purposes of identification; the vehicle will be inspected for safety and regulations; and will acquaint the owner with correct operating procedures.

All Stow residents, owning and operating bicycles, must secure license tags on or before June 1. Announcement will be made next week as to when registrations will begin. Registrations will be taken by Stow Police at the Police Department, beginning on the announced date.

Possible Penalties

All bikes, not properly licensed, will be subject to being impounded by Stow Police. Bike owners, under 18, found to be in violation of any of the regulations, will be cited to report to parents, who will receive the citation. Those owners, over 18, will be subject to fines up to $10.00.

Instructions Included In Ordinance

Owners will be given instructions on proper handling of bikes, while in motion. Included in these instructions will be some of the following: maximum speed limit of 15 mph; vehicle must have a bell (no siren or whistle) or some other device for sound; ½ hour after sunset and ½ hour before sunrise all bicycles must have a white headlight and red taillight, or reflectors, lit, (which lights must be seen 50 feet); there must not be any more riders than vehicle was designed for originally; all bicycles must be driven single file, except when passing another vehicle or in an authorized parade; bicycles must be operated as close to the right curb of the street or street line as is reasonably prudent; rider must obey all traffic signals; rider must give audible warning signal in time; there must be no trick or fancy riding; hand signals must be used to change course; bicycles must yield right-of-way to pedestrians on crosswalks; bicycles must comply with regulations of all moving vehicles; bicycles must yield to pedestrians if in operation on sidewalks; due caution must be used to avert collision with all persons and property.

If there is flagrant violation bicycle license may be suspended. The newly adopted ordinance sets up specifications that the violator could be referred to Juvenile Court.

NUISANCE FIRES CALL OUT FIREMEN; 6 A DAY

Stow Fire Department, regulars and volunteers, have been kept busy during the recent weeks in answering 'nuisance' calls on grass and brush fires. The fire siren has called out 4-20 men on the average of 6 times a day to put out these nuisance fires.

Village Ordinance #54 states: "It is unlawful to burn on open lots or lands the accumulation of inflammable materials in a manner so as to endanger adjacent buildings or premises or as to produce prolonged quantities of offensive or injurious smoke."

Section #2 of this ordinance regulates the fine for this violation up to $50.00.

Captain Howard Osman has announced that most of these calls are due to carelessness. Stowians start fires of proportion to bring out the Department from acts of burning waste papers and accumulated leaves on their own lots or on vacant lots.

Anyone, wishing to start a fire, may call the Department, who is in position to look over the situation and determine whether or no that area would be acceptable and within the confines of fire regulations.

Volunteers are paid on an hourly basis. Present Stow firebugs are using up money, allotted to the Department, at a very rapid pace. This money could well be put to better use.

Announcement has also been made that too many youngsters are turning in too many false alarms. Penalty of a fine, up to $50.00, may be imposed for any false alarm on a fire.

JAYCEE WIVES NAME OFFICERS

Mrs. Richard Phillips, newly elected Jaycee Wives' president, is wife of Jaycee president (1). Mrs. Charles Dolce is the newly elected vice-president.

President of the newly formed Stow Jaycee Wives is Mrs. Richard Phillips, elected at their organizational meeting April 13.

Other officers elected are: vice president, Mrs. Charles Dolce; secretary, Mrs. Jack Dougherty; treasurer, Mrs. Bruce Myers.

Civic chairman will be Mrs. George Preston; telephone committee, Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Michael Thornton; and publicity chairman, Mrs. Danley Schmidt.

WARD #4 VOTERS GIVEN DIRECTIONS

H. G. Barnes, deputy clerk of Summit County Board of Elections, has announced explicit traveling directions for all voters of Ward 4, Precincts A, B, C and D.

Ward 4 voters vote in the auditorium of Highland School, Graham Road. Signs, 'entrance' and 'exit' are plainly marked in the driveway area. There is ample parking space. At the rear of the building, at a rear entrance to the auditorium will be a sign, 'Vote Here', which is where voters should enter.

Previously voters were confused and had hunted the poll in vain until they gave up their right to vote. Many thought that the poll was located at Woodland School. No flag has been flown in the past to mark the area. Those in charge are attempting to have a flag placed.

Highland School is on Graham Road a short distance west of Darrow Road (Route 91).

Way Back When

James Smith Sweeney
(Cont. from last week)

by Frank Green

I have been told that he (Dr. Sweeney) was himself a hard-drinking man.

He sold the tavern property to Andrew Wilson in March, 1868, for $2750. He continued to live in Stow for a time after he left the tavern. His home during this period was on the SE corner of Arndale and Darrow Rds. The office he used when he lived at the Tavern was torn down in the fall of 1950.

During my boyhood I heard many stories testifying to his skill as a physician. I heard one man say that he would rather have Doc Sweeney drunk, than any other doctor around here sober! For years he ministered to our needs, traveling over our awful roads in rain and snow, often hub-deep in mud, or going bumpety-bump over rutty frozen ground. Undoubtedly much of his success was due to his characteristic Irish wit. Everybody liked to have him come and see them, and what he said to some of his patients often did them more good than his homeopathic medicine. My father bought a small case of those little sweet pills in bottles, and my sisters and I got them one day and ate up the whole lot without any unpleasant effects.

After he left Stow, he practiced for some time in Kent. I was born in 1868, the year he left the tavern, and only remember seeing him once. I was about 10 years old when he bought a house of my father and moved it from our place on Darrow Rd. about two miles. They used wooden rollers and planks to move it. They started to move it rather late in the fall. Winter came before they got it off Graham Rd., and it stood in the road all winter.

What I have said in regard to the relative merits of Dr. Sweeney's bedside manner, and the medicine he used, was not meant to detract from his skill as a doctor and surgeon. A lot of people in those early days had, as they have today, psychosomatic illness.

Here is a sample of his ready wit. He said Harvey Grubb would never die - he would dry up and blow away! I'll tell of Harvey Grubb in another story.

Guess What!!! The Jr. Class Play is tomorrow night. It's called "The Able Miss Cain" and starts at 8:00 o'clock sharp.

See what happens when a rich aunt comes to visit the family of a money-hungry mother and daughter, a hen-pecked husband and a son who is hepped on hypnotism. The stage crew is working very hard getting the set ready.

Look at F.T.A. (Future Teachers) go! Last night, Wednesday April 20th, they had a banquet at Iacomin's with at least sixty F.T.A.'ers enjoying their swiss steak or creamed chicken.

Judy Birdsall made the cutest favors for everyone. They were little round bird houses with a green base and roof, filled with candy. The centerpiece was a larger birdhouse. The color scheme was yellow and green (just like spring).

Ken Hoskins (the lucky guy) just returned, via jet, from Hawaii where he spent his time sleeping, eating, and swimming. He has the most beautiful tan you ever saw! He says, "It never rains over there, any thing that falls is simply 'tears of joy' or 'pine-apple juice'" (These tears fall about seven times a day.)

The Jr. Y-Teen Club is sponsoring a dance, "Seventh Heaven", on April 30th. The school body elected a court. The Queen is Barb Zuppa and her king is Denis Kuhlke. Their attendants from each class are: Seniors-Cindy Brown and Jim Cole; Juniors-Robyn Reinhart and Lynn Jackson; Sophomore-Sharon Pimlott and Dick Sellers; Freshman-Barbara Seese and Kip Koski. It sounds like it will be a wonderful dance.

The Stow-Munroe Grandmothers' Club, will meet Friday, April 22, at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hazel Laih, 3678 Elm Road, Stow. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Snowden Kline, Mrs. Floyd Moody, and Mrs. Albert Marietta.

MIXMASTERS ORGANIZE FOR EIGHTH SEASON

Members of the Stow Mix-Masters 4-H Club met at the home of their advisor, Mrs. Joe A. Mitten, to organize for the eighth season of activity.

Officers elected were: president, Kay Yoder; vice president, Nancy Wine; secretary, Becky Smith; treasurer, Cynthia Klesa; news reporter, June Erwin; recreation leader, Elizabeth Wheeler. Helen List and Jackie Wagner are on the telephone committee.

The girls are working on a variety of projects, some of which are: School Dress, Cotton Dress, Sports Clothes, Fun with Foods, Let's Cook, Home Furnishings, Flower Gardening and Exploring the Outdoors.

Mrs. Arthur Yoder is assistant advisor.

Next meeting will be Friday, April 22, at 3:30 p.m. Each member will give a short talk on the fourth H, "Health for Better Living."

Altar and Rosary Card Party Series continue with parties April 26 at Mrs. Marie O'Brien's home and April 27 at Mrs. Peter Cafarelli's. Co-hostesses at the former will be Mrs. Clement Crook and Mrs. Albert Calpo; for the latter, Mrs. John Henterly and Mrs. J. J. Brexa.

Felix Pickarski, 3051 Lake Rd., jewelry engraver for Henry B. Ball Co., suffered a severe heart attack early in April. St. Thomas Hospital reports his condition "poor".

Clara Hibbard holds a huge book of illustrations of land, including the Hibbard homestead on Hudson Drive and former Hibbard owners. This book is serving as a reference, along with her husband's memories, for a painting of former times, which painting is now in the preliminary sketch state.

Clara Hibbard has three loves - her family, drama and art. Through the past years she has proven that it is possible to pursue hidden ambitions and still raise a fine family.

Mrs. Lorin Hibbard in private life, Clara enjoys living in the old nine room Hibbard farmhouse at 4915 Hudson Dr., the place where Lorin was born and raised. This generation of Hibbard children is the sixth to live on the family homestead. The two Hibbard sons, Edwin and Donald, both serving in the U.S. Marines and both Stow High graduates, will be home for good June 15, after three years, away from the family. The two daughters are Lorene, Stow High junior, and Kathleen, eighth grade student at Junior High. Next St. Valentine's Day, Clara and Lorin will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Clara is a charter member of Stow Players, and has served on their Board of Trustees since it was formed. She is directing their spring production, "The Bishop's Mantle", to open early next month.

Clara belonged to the Central High School Drama Club when attending there, and gave monologues between musical selections at Glee Club concerts.

Working under the superior guidance of the late Mabel Todd stimulated a growing interest in dramatics. Later she was an active member of the Evening Session Little Theatre of Akron U. and gave many hours to further religious dramas in the First United Brethren Church. This group toured with plays to Hudson, Parma, Stow and other Akron churches.

Then came the wonderful experience of traveling out of town to small communities, directing local talent groups for the Star Producing Co. "This was the best experience. Learning to understand the other person in good fellowship makes for a good show," she says. Her goal as director is to help would-be actors enjoy their work and still bring out all their talent.

While waiting for her fourth child to be born, Clara began private art lessons, a lifelong ambition. A real talent was waiting to be discovered. Since, Clara has completed many canvases on commission, enjoys decorating wedding announcements as well as doing wall murals. She is now working on a mural showing all the details of the Hibbard farm as Lorin knew it as a boy.

Art and drama have overlapped several times, for she did the set design for the interior of a log cabin for Stow Players' "Trail of the Lonesome Pine" and a French chateau set for "The Mad Hopes."

Clara's personal warmth and charm are immediately apparent to all who meet her in person or on stage. She enjoys life so fully that her enjoyment seems contagious.

To Buy or Not to Buy MORTGAGE CREDIT PROVES SAVINGS

by Don Buckley

Most homes bought today are acquired on credit. If the buyer is careful of his purchase and keeps the property in good condition, in addition to the various amenities of home ownership, he can figure a return in the form of rent paid to himself. A well-bought home is like a savings account. Consider as an example the following home purchase:

1. Sales price	$17,000
2. FHA downpayment	1,100
3. Approximate closing costs	340
4. Mortgage	$15,900
5. Principal, interest, mortgage insurance, monthly	$99
6. Approximate taxes, monthly	17
7. Approximate fire insurance coverage, monthly	4
8. Total monthly payment	$120

The interest of item 5 and taxes of item 6 are usually tax deductible.

The principal of item 5 is just a part of the buyers savings.

As a comparison, the down-the-drain costs of this property would be approximately $55 per month whereas the rent of an equal property would be in the neighborhood of $140 per month.

This does not take into consideration that a house and property in an upgrading neighborhood has for a number of years increased in value from $3 to $4 per day minus 2% per year depreciation.

THOMPSON CALLS JUNIORS PROS

Who Needs Broadway?

The cast of "The Able Miss Cain", in spite of inexperience, are proving to be regular "pros" in their acting chores, according to Director Jim Thompson. Completely staffed with junior class members of Stow High, the comedy is ready to go.

As opening night, tomorrow, April 22, approached, it became evident that one substitute would have to be installed. Jim Wilson - Papa in the show - was supposed to whistle shrilly in order to awaken the bumpkin maid. In spite of other talents, Jim could whistle no whistle. He could look as though he was whistling - he could make a good whistle-mouth - but this had to be with sound. Finally the sub was sent in. Now they use a bell.

"The Able Miss Cain" is open to the public, who will be wise to get into their High School Auditorium seats promptly at 8 p.m. so they won't miss one laugh.

Fund-raisers are missing a bet when they don't get Oakley Spaght to make taffy for them to sell. Best brown sugar taffy we ever ate - only trouble is, there's probably not enough brown sugar in the country to make enough to satisfy our sweet teeth! We asked him about it after Frank Green mentioned the skill in his column, and - yummy!

The 12th anniversary Banquet of the Munroe Falls Garden Club will be held Monday, April 25, at 6:30 at Anthe's Restaurant, 1612 State Road, Cuyahoga Falls. Handling arrangements is Committee Chairman Mrs. Charles Marinics.

The April meeting of Cub Scout Pack 3175 will be held Tuesday, April 26, at 7:30 at Riverview School.

The Munroe Falls Police Department will hold a Round and Square Dance at the Village Hall Saturday, April 30, from 8 till 12.

John Ruskin once wrote,

'There is hardly anything in this world that some man cannot make a little worse and sell a little cheaper and the people who consider price only are this man's lawful prey.'

Ruskin's wisdom is particularly applicable to pharmacy - for when health is involved, only the best is good enough.

In this pharmacy, we do not stock cut-rate drugs nor do we claim to undersell on prescriptions. Our prices, however, are as low as efficient service and quality products will permit. The next time you need prescription service, stop in at:
