STOW LIONS AWARDS

STOLION awards given to Stow school children by Stow Lions Club at the close of each year were given Friday, May 20, in the schools. These awards are given to students who rate highest personal qualities.

These qualities include: accepts responsibility, does work promptly and efficiently and is trustworthy; respects authority, knows the rules and abides by the rules; respected by others, good personality, honest and fair; does more than required, dependable; and has shown unusual improvement in any one or more of the above listed qualities.

Winners in the divided school units are chosen, not by any one individual, but by a group, consisting of the room teachers, principals and other qualified personnel of that school unit. Members of Stow Lions Club present the awards during an all-student assembly meeting in each school unit. Talents, such as athletic or scholastic ability, are not necessary factors in winning one of these awards. The fact that a student has not rated high in the past in any one of these does not prevent him from becoming a winner this year.

Highland School

Woodland

At Woodland School medals and certificates were given to: Darlene McKinney, Harry Ruggles, Rosemary Sherlock, Allan Holtz, Kay Rhodes, Ronald Maghes, Harry Walter, Mary Holton and Mary Saltis.

Riverview

Holy Family

William McMillen, who lives at 3529 Williamson Road, received a $25 U.S. Savings Bond and certificate.

Receiving medals and certificates at Holy Family were: Grade 4, Margaret Barkoccy and Pam Weber (l.) received the Ohio Congress Memorial Scholarship from several local PTA's May 20 at Recognition Day in Stow Senior High School. John Moore (c.) and Linda Seese (r.) received the Stolon Award for outstanding students. Each received a gold pin, a certificate and a $50 U.S. Savings Bond.

PARPART PLACQUE MEMORIAL GIVEN

Earl Simmons, principal of Highland School, presented the Memorial Plaque to Mrs. Nina Parpart, May 18, in memory of Mrs. Parpart's husband, the late Roy Parpart, former principal of Highland.

Mrs. Nina Parpart accepted a plaque in memory of her husband, the late Roy D. Parpart, May 18, in Highland School.

This plaque reads: "Roy D. Parpart Principal, Civic Leader and Friend 1955-1959."

Earl Simmons, principal at Highland School, said "....this plaque, which the children and

BOOSTERS SPONSOR SWIMMING JAMBOREE

Get Pool Facilities Before Summer Opening

Leisure Time, private swim and recreation club, has been turned over by Phil Baker, owner, to Stow Boosters Friday, May 27, (tomorrow) from 4-8 p.m. for a "Swim Jamboree", planned to add more funds to the Booster treasury. Boosters are selling tickets, 50¢ each if purchased at the door, or 40¢ if purchased in advance. All proceeds go to Boosters for helping athletic activities in Stow.

Swimming in the heated pool will start the festivities, which will include diving for loose coins for prizes, awarding of a valuable door prize, and topping off the doings with dancing on the patio.

Boosters will present their newly founded award of a plaque to Don Gray, athletic senior at Stow High with the highest scholastic average.

Tickets may be obtained in advance from Mr. Walker at the high school, or from any of the executive board of the Boosters.

Boosters have just donated $500 toward athletic equipment for the high school football team.

CHORUSES GIVE SONG PROGRAM

Stow High Glee Club, Girls' Choir and Freshman Chorus displayed a year's training in their quality program of "A Bouquet of Song", Saturday evening, May 21, in Stow High School Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. These groups were directed by vocal music director, Mr. Parke Wayne Cooley.

Art director Kay Frankhauser provided the backdrop of a typical Parisian street scene. John Dresser was stage director. Choreographer was Jerilyn Thorp, who also served as accompanist along with Gale Gordon. Stage equipment was done by Charles Mills.

Parke Cooley, Vocal Music Director at Stow High School, led the choral groups at 'A Bouquet of Song' program in the school May 21.

Stage committee consisted of: James Savory, Steve Berg, Jim Amberson, Ed Gidley, Terry Frantz and Bob Lee. Scenery artists were: Cindy Broen, Barbara Zuppa, Bud Weeks, Terry McIntyre and Doug Huntsman.

Justice For All

by Bob Golden

I listened to a little girl recite our National Pledge, the other day.

"With liberty and justice for all," she ended.

I felt as though I understood those words better than I had for a long time.

It hasn't been too many years ago that I stood nervously raking my toe along a crack in the floor of a little country school house, and struggled through the same Pledge. Such a short time ago, but long enough to have forgotten.

I think a lot of us have forgotten. We are inclined to cheat on the word justice.

"...and justice for all." Not justice only in a court of law, for justice isn't bound by definition to the law. Rather, justice to the news-boy, or those annoying neighbors, or those people across town that you just can't stand — everyone! Justice isn't a relative word to be applied in some cases and neglected in others.

What is it? The philosopher might call justice a moral principal that determines just conduct. The butcher might call justice keeping his thumb off the meat scale. The kid across the street unconsciously labels justice as not stealing his buddies' marbles.

Lets just call justice something to live by, a compassion for your fellow man. Let's call it understanding, and devotion, and being just to yourself. So many people aren't now-a-days.

They don't have the time.

To many, the most important ingredient in the recipe for success is crust.

Way Back When

by Frank Green

Lot 55, Stow Township (second of series)

What I wrote about in STOW PRESS of Lot 55 (published in last week's paper) was a bare outline.

In this story I shall put flesh on the skeleton. My mother, Ellen Stow, was born in Brimfield May 19, 1837. So she was a baby when her parents moved into Patchen House. She was 19 when they moved close together.

Captain Stow and his wife, Peggy, lived at present Smorgasbord. His youngest son, Russell, his wife, Lucille, and 2 children, George and Julia, lived with them. Zebulum Editha and their 6 children lived across the road.

From 1837-1856 most of these children grew up and married and lived in homes of their own very near. Someone had planted an orchard on the farm. There was one variety of apples, growing in it that my mother likes especially. This variety was the Hubbardson None Such.

When I was a big boy she told me of this apple. I went over to the old place. The tree was still there with a few apples on it. She said that they tasted as they did when she was a girl.

Uncle Charlie and Aunt Helen Southmayd's girls were born and married in that house. There were 3 girls. They were like sisters to me. Edith was my sister Daisy's bridesmaid. I will tell just one funny thing that happened while Minnie and I lived in this house.

One day in summer our big old sow walked into the open back door. Ask Eunice Carlyon about this interesting visit.

My father, F. M. Green, was nine years old and his brother, Wallace, seven years old, when Grandpa came to the little house on the Chamberlain Farm. He helped his father plant the row of maples along the front, West Side, of the Farm. These boys both went to the Corners School and both of them taught sometime to Graham Road. She went with her Stow cousins, who lived across the road, to District 3 School, Stow Corners. At that time there were 6 families of Stow, living later in the Township School.

Here is a story out of their life. They and another boy were walking across the fields near Graham Road. A Mr. Burridge had a turnip patch. The boys each pulled up a turnip and went their way, eating the turnips. Mr. Burridge saw them and ran towards them.

The other boys ran. Father stood his ground. The man said, "Who are you?"

"Mr. Burridge", my father pleaded, "I will pay you for your turnip."

This was not satisfactory to Mr. Burridge. He went to see Grandpa. He asked Grandpa to 'lick' the boys. Grandpa promised. Later Grandpa told me that he 'put it on mighty light'.

In not telling what I know of the Arnold Family in Stow I did not mean to belittle their achievements. C. H. left an enduring marker to all of us with his fine highway and his talented family.

Miss Gale Gordon Is New Worthy Advisor

Miss Gale Gordon will be installed as Worthy Advisor of Kent Assembly 33, Rainbow Girls, this Thursday evening, May 26, at 7:30 p.m. in Kent Masonic Temple.

Miss Gale Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Gordon, who reside at 3505 Oak Rd., Stow, will be installed as Worthy Advisor of Kent Assembly 33, Order of Rainbow for Girls, this Thursday evening, May 26.

Installation services will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Kent Masonic Temple for this newly elected Advisor.

Miss Gordon plans to enter the College of Education, Kent State, this fall after graduating with the June Class at Stow High School. A member of the National Honor Society, Future Teachers of America, Y-Teens, Tri-M, National Forensic League, president of Stow Senior High Band, Miss Gordon is also a member of First Christian Church, where she acts as treasurer.

Cast Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Hibbard entertained the cast and technical crew of "The Bishop's Mantle" at a weiner roast on the Hibbard Farm, 4915 Hudson Dr., May 21.

by Kathy Martin
after the closing performance of the spring production of Stow Players. Mrs. Hibbard (Clara) directed this very successful presentation.

Local "Little Theatre"

Two members of Stow Players, Inc., are currently appearing in Akron little theatre productions. James Exline has a role in Coach House Theatre's "Who Was That Lady", and Joe Pfeiffer can be seen in "Come Back, Little Sheba" at Weathervane.

Ruth Reel is back on the job at Standard Drug, looking healthy and full of smiles after her recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Trier plan a trip to Ft. Devens, Mass., to see son Bruce over Memorial Day. Mrs. Wendell Beane of 1513 Hibbard Dr., was surprised with a baby shower on Wednesday evening May 18 at her home. Neighbors and relatives numbering 18 enjoyed the games and refreshments planned by Mrs. Albert Rowan and Mrs. Clinton Davis. The cake was in the form of a bassinet.

STORK CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, 1473 Hibbard Dr., are proud parents of a 6 lb. boy. His name is Randy William and was born May 16. He has a brother and a sister.

Ernest Kilbournes Will Speak

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest J. Kilbourne will be the guest speakers at the Missionary Service, planned by the Stow Calvary Chapel, to be held, Sunday evening, May 29th, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Kilbourne is the daughter of Rev. Bill Denton, Akron, Ohio, and the niece of the pastor, Rev. Joseph Denton of the Stow Calvary Chapel.

This will be the last service in their itinerary, concluding deputation work, before leaving for California, preparatory to their departure to resume their second term of missionary work in Tokyo, Japan. Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourne have served a total of twelve years in the Far East as missionaries under the auspices of the Board of the Oriental Missionary Society.

After being driven from their labors in Peiping, China, by the inroads of the Communists, they served as pastor and teacher to a Japanese congregation in Hawaii. Later, they returned to their present field in Tokyo.

They will be accompanied by their three daughters, two of whom were born in the Orient. Anyone interested in modern-day Japan will be astounded at the stories of mass suicide among the young people of the country, who though they have tried to copy Western culture find it difficult to accept the philosophy of the West.

Special music will be brought by Mrs. Fred Griffiths and daughter, Mrs. Joan Cash, who are heard on the 'Gospel Breakfast' program, sponsored by the Furnace Street Mission over Station WADC. Mrs. Joseph Denton will lead the congregation singing.

A cordial invitation is extended to the community to participate in this Missionary Rally.

Sports Awards

Friday was Recognition Day at Stow High. The award given to the senior who has done the most in athletics during his four years in high school went to Bob Cueni. Bob, Student Council President, lettered in football, baseball and wrestling.

Later, a Booster Club-inspired award went to the varsity athlete with the highest scholastic average. Senior Don Gray won this with an average of 95.12. Don has lettered in football, basketball and baseball this year.

This column awards a few words of thanks and praise to Dan Packard. He has done a fine job this year with the Junior Varsity baseballers. The Board of Education was financially unable to hire a coach for the Sophomore-Freshman team. Dan, a junior at Stow, volunteered to handle the reins. He considers it good experience and seems to enjoy the post.

A Win And A Loss

Blue Devils Shut Out by Moore

Larry Moore pitched a neat two-hit shutout May 16 against the Blue Devils of Tallmadge. The Bulldog batsmen took advantage of Moore's fine mound work as they tagged Tallmadge starter for seven hits and three runs.

Heartbreaker Goes to Wadsworth

Stow lost a thriller last Thursday to Wadsworth. A bases-loaded bloop single won the game for the Grizzlies in the tenth. In the last of the seventh it looked like Stow's ball game. They led 2-1, with two out, when a Wadsworth runner tried to steal second. Stow catcher Mike Klesa fired a perfect strike to second and Bill Nickol put on the tag. The players were jubilantly starting off the field when the umpire ruled Nickol had missed the runner.

Later in the inning the same runner took off for home on a ground ball. Shortstop Don Gray fielded the ball cleanly, barreled it to catcher Klesa. Klesa snapped the tag on the runner's hip, but the plate umpire ruled the runner safe to tie it up and sent the game into extra innings.

Track Unglorious

The District Track Meet was disappointed for the Bulldog harriers. Only Lynn Jackson was able to score. Jackson took a fifth in the 880 yard run.

parents, all friends of the late Mr. Parpart, collected money to purchase, will be placed in the oak display cabinet in the center hall of Highland, along with the other trophies, which our school has earned, in a place of loving prominence."

Mrs. Parpart is also one of the more popular teachers of Stow, being employed as 4th grade teacher at Woodland Elementary School.

The late Mr. Parpart was killed in a cave-in on his property in 1959.

HIGH WAYS

by Terry Moore

The Recognition Day assembly was opened at nine o'clock Friday, May 20th. The faces of the graduating seniors seemed solemn as they processed in with juniors, Judy Thomas and Thomas Shuster, leading. At this time Roger Frederick traditionally presented the cap and gown to Tom Shuster. Richard Myers represented the Senior Class in giving a lighted out-door bulletin board to the school.

Stolion Award

For the third consecutive year the Stow Lions Club has presented the Stolion Award to two outstanding students. This year the honor to receive the award was given to Linda Seese and John Moore. (They received a gold pin, a signed certificate, and a fifty dollar bond.)

The best athletics cup was given to Robert Cueni. The Jack Fogarty Memorial Trophy for outstanding track went to Martin Brandon and Lynn Jackson.

State Scholarships Winners

Miss Dorothy Denbrock presented certificates to nineteen seniors who won mention in the State Senior Scholarship Test. They were: Marilyn Case, Linda Seese, Don Gray, Lowell Body, Lowell Cannon, Dave Willey, Ken Pardee, Pam Weber, Harold Shetz, Dick Swartz, Ray Balsevicious, Jim Savory, Jim Coles, Clay Wagner, Dolores Burdette, John Horvath, Jack Wright, Jim Cowles, and George Porosky.

At the top 10% of the 12,000 that took the test were Marilyn Case, Linda Seese, and Don Gray. In the top 5% of the 13,000 girls who took the test in the State were Marilyn Case and Linda Seese. Test results from the Final State Scholarship Test that the top three in every subject took are not back yet and still remain a secret.

Music Awards

Mr. Cooley presented deserving people with Vocal Music Awards and announced names of new members in the National Music Honorary Society, Tri-M.

Mrs. Schiesser president of the Riverview PTA, representing several local PTA's, gave Pamela Weber the Ohio Congress Memorial Scholarship.

Robert Cueni, this year's Student Council President, told the student body who their next years officers are to be: President of Student Council is Randy Morrison; vice-president, Lynn Jackson; secretary, Bill Nichol; treasurer, Colleen Marshall.

Band Members

Outstanding band members received Certificates of Merit and Jeanette Schullman was given special recognition as the most outstanding senior in the band. Next year's band President is Bob Pfile; vice-president, Terry Frantz; secretary, Nancy Rearick; treasurer, Cheryl McAdam.

Future Teachers

Miss Velma Workman recognized the members in Future Teachers of America and told the number of merit points each senior had worked for. Dolores Burdette with over 300 merit points (each one representing about one hour's work in FTA) received the fifty dollar Culture Club Award to be used for books in her college education. Jim Cowles received twenty-five dollars.

Reserve Cheerleaders

Miss Castar announced the Reserve Cheerleaders for next year. They are: captain, Gay Tilton; Peggy Wilt, Cheryl Osman, Judy Clem, and substitute, Pinky Pickton. Varsity Cheerleaders for next year are: captain, Judy Thomas, Robyn Reinhart, Nancy Rearick, Lucy Jones, Pat Buxton, Connie Williams, and substitute, Connie Courson.

Boys on the Stage Crew who put in many hours of continuous work are Steve Berg, Jim Savory, Jim Amberson, and Ed Guidley.

Forensic League

New members in the National Forensic League are Sharon Bailey, Tonie Mudugno, Teri

Vernarge, and Gill Wright. Mibs Blocke, Ginny Hagat, Tom Van Brunt, and Jim Wilson, received their Honorary Degree. Tom Van Brunt also received his Degree of Excellence. Marilyn Case, Adrian Bohl, Dick Swartz, and Nan Gaylord received their Degree of Distinction. For this honor you need two hundred and fifty points. Marilyn and Adrian both have over four hundred.

Chosen for Bucheye Girls State and Bucheye Boys State were Mary Ann Kaufmann and Don Murfin.

Mary Ann Flaherty and Randy Morrison were chosen by the Stow Rotary to go to the World Affairs Institute.

Citizenship Awards went to Dolores Burdette and Bob Cueni of the Senior Class.
