

THE GROWING RACE

by Gracious Sakes

Daddy planted bean seed in a long straight row.
Kenny wished he had his own, so he could watch it grow.
So Daddy took a bean seed, so white and hard and round,
Then Kenny stooped and planted it in the soft black ground.
Kenny said to Daddy, "Let's have a growing race
Whose bean will grow the fastest, from its planted place"
Pretty soon the rain came down and made an awful racket,
Kenny's bean seed stretched and wiggled in its jacket.
It felt the warming sunshine and raised a tiny sprout.
The bean seed wasn't very bold, so it stuck an elbow out.
Kenny's bean seed worked real hard and soon it stood up tall,
And sure enough it was - the fastest one of all.
Kenny was so happy a big smile on his face.
"Look, Daddy, it was MY bean seed that won the growing race."

Stow's Busiest Father?

FATHER OF 8 ATTENDS NIGHT SCHOOL

On Saturday, June 11, at 10 a.m. Laurence Cook, 4102 Lee-wood Dr., father of eight children, received his Master of Education Degree at Kent State University after four years of attending night classes and summer school.

Mr. Cook completed his undergraduate work at the University of Akron, receiving his BA degree in 1950. Since that time Larry has taught school in Akron, most recently teaching the ninth grade at Goodyear Junior High.

A graduate of Akron South, he spent three years as a Chaplain's Assistant while serving in the Army Infantry in the European Theatre during World War II.

Second to teaching, he enjoys singing - either as a soloist at weddings and special affairs, or as one of the tenor voices in the Holy Family Church Choir, having studied voice while attending Westminster Choir College at Princeton, N. J. before Uncle Sam called.

An ardent bridge player, Larry also enjoys swimming when not otherwise occupied at home helping his wife, Carolyn, take care of their four sons and four daughters who range in age from five months to 10 years. The Cooks have been married nearly 12 years. Carolyn also has a BA degree in Education, having graduated from Akron U. just in time to have their third child.

Someday, when all the kiddies are grown up, there may be a Mrs. Cook as well as a Mr. Cook teaching in one of our area school systems.

Volume 1, Issue 31

June 16, 1960

Single Copy 10c

June 28 is the date set for voting on withdrawal of a north-west portion of Stow from the village.

Polling place will be Staiger's Greenhouse, 4157 Hudson Dr., regular polling place for the area. Voting hours will be 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Only qualified voters who live within the area involved may vote on this issue.

STOW GROUP TRIES SECESSION

Following is printed a statement from the now much publicized Stow Secessionists: "We, the people of the proposed West Township, feel that there are no advantages for us in this area; to live in a city and be governed by one city government.

"We feel that our area is more suited to a simple township form of government and also is definitely a less expensive government.

"Due to the same compact area a closer relationship could be had between citizens and our officials. These officials would be more familiar with the people's problems. We are alarmed at what will happen to the main roads, maintained now by the county but which will become the responsibilities of the government of Stow when it becomes a city. According to county school officials there will be no change whatsoever in our schools. We are short of complete fire and police protection at all times. Movement of this secession is being financed by small donations from people in the area."

This above petition was filed June 2 and processed by E. C. Brown, clerk of the County Board of Elections. Signatures on this petition included 15% of the registered voters.

Area of Stow, wishing to secede includes the area in the western part of Stow which runs north from the corner of Silver Lake Golf Course, direct north to Ohio Industrial Park Land, turns left along Industrial Park area to Hudson Drive and follows the center line of Hudson Drive to the northern boundary of Stow.

Wiley Wolfe, 877 McCauley, is acting agent for this group.

Speaking for some of the citizens opposed to secession, one resident of the proposed secession area brought up the question of school costs. He feared the area would eventually be annexed by another municipality.

However, if such annexation should become a fact, according to C. L. Bower, County Auditor, the annexing municipality would then have to assume payment of assessments voted by the Stow school district before the date of secession. Thus the citizens involved would eventually be paying for completion of schools in Stow plus schools in their new municipality, or double assessments.

PUBLISHER DOUBTS

WISDOM OF SECESSION

It was one of our hopes when The Stow Press was born last November that it might help make Stow residents feel more community-minded - as a new baby often strengthens family ties.

Now we are faced with threats of divorce by part of our north-western section.

We have quoted the leader of the divorce - or secession - movement, and the president of our council.

Our own opinion is that a successful secession can only result in more harm than good for the would-be secessionists. They stand to lose safety protection from Fire and Police Departments which are theirs as part of Stow... their property values face serious depreciation without Stow's building regulations, while Stow leaders are working to improve property and increase its value.

The district involved does not produce great taxes for our city-to-be...financially Stow would not suffer. The seceding section would pay out less in immediate cash perhaps...but we hate to see any of our family going backward instead of forward...seeming to us to be "penny-wise and pound foolish."

Why Not?

We read in one of the daily papers that there is to be a new Ohio warehouse built for the Ben Franklin Stores. It occurs to us that our Industrial Park Location would be ideal for this warehouse — close to trucking on the Turnpike and right on a new railroad siding.

Furthermore, wouldn't it be an ideal type of building for Stow? Shouldn't be any unpleasant noises or smoke from it....in fact, if officials of City Products, owning corporation of the variety chain, haven't already decided on another location, we hope they consider Stow.

Way Back When by Frank Green

This will of Robert Walker's should provide some interesting variation from my usual column. Robert was the father of William Walker, the 1st settler in Stow. He came to Hudson Township in 1801 and took up land in the south-east corner.

Robert's son, William, then a young man but already married, cleared up some land south of his father's and built a cabin. When Stow Township was surveyed in 1804 it was learned that William Walker's land was in Stow and not in Hudson.

Copy of this will was given to me by Dr. Lois Merkel, a practicing physician in Sharon, Penna., who is a great great granddaughter of Robert Walker.

The will read in part as follows:

....I, Robert Walker of Hudson in the County of Portage and State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory do make this as my last will and testament. Firstly: After all my debts and funeral charges are paid, my will is that my loving wife Elizabeth Walker during her natural life shall have the use and occupancy of my present dwelling-house and the use and improvements of one-third part of all improvements on all the lands now owned by me. The use and the improvement of the furniture now in the dwelling-house and the use of one-third part of the stock now owned by me. I further give and bequeath to my said wife and to be disposed of by her as she may see proper, one equal half of all the furniture now owned by me.

Item. My further will is that my sons John Walker, James Walker and George Walker shall each have and own the lots of lands on which they respectively live, they paying their equal proportions on the balance now due from me to the heirs of Budsey Norton, deceased, for said land. I further give to my said sons, John, James and George the two bonds I now hold against Jas. Dailey for about $356 to aid them in paying for said lands. And to my son George I give and bequeath all my farming utensils, stock of horses and cattle not above bequeathed to my said wife, and my compass and chain, etc.

Item. I give to my son William Walker $242 to be paid in grain or meat cattle at their market value in equal annual installments and to be paid to him by my said sons John, James and George in the following proportions, to-wit: John to pay $78, James to pay $82 and George to pay $82.

Item. I give to my son Robert Walker, $139 to be paid by my sons

John, James and George in equal annual installments in grain or meat cattle and to be paid in the following proportions to-wit: $48 to be paid by my son James, $48 to be paid by my son George and $43 to be paid by my son John.

Item. I give to my daughter Sarah Parker $40 and to be paid by my said sons John, James and George in grain in three equal annual installments and to be paid in the following proportions, to-wit: To be paid by my said son John $14, by my said son James $13, and by my said son George $13.

Item. I give to my daughter Margaret Stewart $40 and to be paid..... (in the same fashion)

Item. I further give my said son George Walker all books belonging to me except my large Bible which I give to my wife Elizabeth.

For the purpose of carrying the foresaid will into execution I hereby appoint W. Wetmore and George Walker my executors.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Hudson this 11th day of June A.D. 1812.

Summit County Agricultural Service ANGEL PIE

1½ cups granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
4 eggs, separated
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 pint heavy cream
Fresh strawberries

Sift one cup of the sugar with the cream of tartar. Beat egg whites until they stand in stiff but not dry peaks. Then slowly add the sifted sugar, beating until the meringue is very stiff. In a well-greased, 9-inch pie plate, spread meringue ¼-inch thick around the bottom and 1-inch thick up the sides just to the rim. Bake at 275 F. (slow oven) for one hour. Crust should be light brown and crisp. Cool at room temperature. Beat egg yolks slightly in the top of a double boiler. Then stir in the remaining ½ cup of sugar, lemon juice, lemon rind and salt. Cook, stirring over boiling water, until very thick—about 8 to 10 minutes.

Stow High School graduates are seen from the rear as they receive their diplomas before making an about face to make their places in the world.

Congratulations to the alumnae! Pat yourselves on the back, parents, they're finally through! The seniors marched solemnly to get their diplomas in the Stow High Auditorium, June seventh. As soon as the seniors were made alumnae they all piled into the busses waiting for them and went to Hudson Theatre.

There they waited for a half hour for someone to open the doors for them. "High Society", and "Don't Go Near the Water" were two swell movies, after everyone got settled down. After this the busses were ready to roll to the Stow-Kent Lanes where almost everyone got to bowl. Later at Leisure Time the boys and three brave girls went in swimming. (Rather, the boys were brave, the girls went swimming because they were thrown in.) Temperatures that night were around 42 degrees F. and Pat Russell, Cindy Brown, and Nan Gaylord can still be seen going around with sniffles. At 5:30 or 6:00 the scene changed to Adell Durbin where the new graduates feasted on ham, sausage, eggs, all kinds of sweet rolls, orange juice, and milk. We'll never forget you, "Seniors of '60!"

TO BUY OR NOT TO BUY

The Lot Sets the Value

The relation between the buyer and the real estate salesman, the buyer and the "by owner" seller, the real estate salesman and the buying public is the scope of this article.

When a family decides to move from their present quarters to buy a new or used home there are several points to remember.

1. Do not be too hard to please. True, the probable reason you are moving is to get a better home or neighborhood but this fact stands out—your dollar will buy just so many square feet of living area, depending on the type of construction and location. If, for example, you want top quality construction; i.e., natural finished hardwood trim, cabinets and floors, ceramic tile, plastered walls, full basement and with name brand equipment in the heating plant and hot water tank, you can expect to pay $13.50 per square foot in all frame, $14.00 with aluminum siding, and $14.50 with a good brick veneer. These prices are slightly variable, as the basis is a 1000 square foot home and assuming it is a new home.

If your purchase is in the average $17,000 class you will get (in all frame) a 1000 square foot home considering the lot value at $3500.

Older homes cannot be compared this way due to actual age and affective age, but the square foot value will always be less than stated for the new home. In these 1000 square feet if there is an extra large living/dining area do not expect large bedrooms and vice versa.

2. In letting a real estate salesman help you find a home, give him your requirements, price range, location preferences, and let him make some appointments to show you the inside of some homes. If he is a good salesman he will find the home for you by the sixth appointment. Work with one or two salespeople at the most, one preferably.

3. Interview your salesman. You can expect him to be fluent in real estate matters, aware of the latest in financing and alert to real estate values in lot worth. Most real estate companies cooperate in the selling of property so if you drive by a for-sale property and it looks interesting—regardless of whose sign is there—or read an ad on a property that is interesting—call the salesman you have selected by phone or personal interview. This salesman can find out the details on the home and can make an appointment for you. Nothing is harder on a salesman than to work hard for weeks finding a good buy for a family, then see them buy from someone else who has not worked for them at all, but just had a convenient listing. The practice of calling your salesman will usually provide you with a better home since he will be more interested in your family. Do not forget that if you only drive by addresses your salesman provides, you might be missing some bargains. A Chevrolet and a Pontiac are about the same on the outside. The real difference is inside.

4. Some people look for a year or two before buying. This is ridiculous and wasteful of equity. When you look at a home be prepared to make a decision on the spot—you may get cold feet if you sleep on it. If the value is there, make an offer. You will feel uneasy until you move in—expect it.

5. When buying from a "by owner" seller there are two courses: (a) Get a good appraisal from your bank or a realtor and see your attorney before you agree to buy. (b) Try to get the seller to place the deal with a realtor. Do not let him kid you about this cost's going on top of the price as he is only trying to save the Realtor fee by selling himself. You should want a person familiar with real estate paperwork to handle the largest purchase of your life. Most salespeople will tell you that getting the buyer and seller together on a price is not even half their work.

2 Rx's...OR A LONG HOSPITAL STAY

A prescription costs less—far less—than a single day's stay in the hospital. Today, in most cases, just one or two prescriptions are all that a patient needs to get well. But years ago, he would have had to go through a long expensive session at the hospital. That's why we say:
