HOMECOMING - THE GAME AND THE DANCE

If that wasn't a super-duper game! The fellows made such headway every time they had the ball! We'll always remember...the way our elected court was driven past the stands amid the shouting and screaming of their admirers...the convertibles stopping on the opposite side of the field, and the beauties escorted across the field in this order:

Joyce Anderson, escorted by Jim Cord; Lou Wooley by Dennis Marinics; Penny Powell by Jerry Miller; Robyn Reinhart by Tom Schuster; and Judy Thomas escorted by Mike Klesa.

In front of enraptured fans, Judy was declared Queen of the 1960 Homecoming, with a crown of flowers and a kiss from Student Council President Randy Morrison.

The dance Saturday night was fit for a queen. The Student Council, under the direction of Mary Ann Kaufmann, chairman of the decorating committee, had an outstanding dance!

Yellow, green and violet were the colors of the false ceiling. Streaming from this were balloons and ticker tape. The "Mardi Gras" effect came through gorgeously with masks scattered around. A multicolored fountain bubbled in the center of the floor. In simple language, the decorations were FABULOUS! It seems no one has ever gone to so much trouble to beautify the auditorium for a dance before.

At intermission, Linda Henderson crowned Judy, and Randy Morrison presented her with a bouquet of red roses. Lynn Jackson, Ralph Richardson, Addis Settle, Jim Bowen and Bob Martin were the football players appointed to present the royalty at the dance.

SPORTS CAR EVENT AT SHOP CENTER

A Gym-Khanna, sports car "skill of handling" event sponsored by the Sports Car Club of America, will take place Saturday, Oct. 22, at the Stow-Kent Shopping Center at 12 Noon. The event is open to the public audience, will be held in the parking lot at the Center.

Noll, Becker Clash At School Board

School Board member Mrs. Jack Noll touched off vehement opposition in fellow-member Don Becker when she made the suggestion that parents, citizens groups and local clubs be encouraged to offer suggestions and/or "want lists" to the board relative to the schools.

Becker strongly opposed the suggestion on grounds that laymen are not qualified to advise or even discuss professional problems such as school buildings or curricula, and that discussions between laymen and professionals would be a "waste of the professionals' time." President Whalen ventured, "any well thought-out suggestion that might be made...we could ponder over and put into consideration between architect, teachers, etc."

After a speech by Mrs. Lockhart, a member of the audience, citing examples of state-wide usefulness of such lay groups from other communities, President Whalen requested Mrs. Noll to bring her suggestion in concrete form to the next meeting.

The board also: Authorized the hiring of Nancy Tanner as an elementary school teacher, Donald Hixon as a substitute bus driver, and Mr. Noall, 7th grade teacher, as a third assistant basketball coach. ($225 added to his annual salary).

Authorized purchase of equipment for Lakeview's music department ($202), new furniture for first grade level, National Defense Act materials for science, math and foreign language classes ($2358.84).

Interspersed throughout these actions were lengthy discussions concerning early dismissal of high school 8th period study halls (the nays had it); fencing in the football field parking lot (end-to-end telephone poles now, maybe a fence later); possibilities of establishing a permanent foreign language lab at the high school (Super. Van Brunt couldn't think of a place to house it) and

NEW STOW PUBLIC LIBRARY GOING UP ON NOBLE PROPERTY

The Stow Public Library Board of Trustees has recently purchased the Frederick G. Noble property. This completed the land acquisition plans for a proposed new library building. Adjacent to the present library property on the north, this lot will provide almost an acre setting for the new structure.

In 1953, the Library Trustees began considering the need for a new building. Two additions had been made previously to the present structure, a former residential building. Anticipated city status and projected housing developments, along with a continued increase in circulation, seemed to make such planning imperative.

Early this year the architect firm of Tuchman and Canute was retained to give counsel and to assist in developing a program for the new building. This was preceded by a meeting with the State Librarian, Mr. Walter Brahm.

Currently being considered are preliminary plans which will provide a building of approximately 7300 square feet. This space will include a room for the adult book collection, a children's room and a meeting room. There also will be an office for the librarian; a work-room area, and a mechanical equipment room.

Noting the scarcity of public meeting places for small community groups, Mrs. Hugh Saviers, librarian, has stated that this is an additional service which the library should incorporate into a new building.

No definite date has been set for construction of the new building.

JULY 4th FILMS TONIGHT

Stow Community Council will hold an open meeting tonight (Oct. 20) showing movies of the July 4th celebration at 9:30 p.m. following the regular business meeting which will be at 8:00 p.m. in the main room of Town Hall.

Anyone wishing to see these movies is welcome to stop in and enjoy the parade all over again. James Exline, president, will preside.

a rolling science lab for elementary schools (future consideration).

The board discussed offering for a nominal lease to the Village of Stow their part of the parking lot at Town Hall after hearing a request that the school board pave same. If Stow wants to blacktop the lot while leasing it, they will be allowed to do so, but parking privileges would be retained by the schools. Mrs. Burgess, clerk of the school board, was asked to investigate the legality of such a lease.

Mr. Whalen requested that Van Brunt bring to the board "an evaluation of the situation we find ourselves in with a curriculum director" (this is the first year Stow schools have had such an office, held by Eugene Dominic), that Van Brunt get immediate quotations on auditorium draperies and see that the enlargement of the doors to the high school music room be accomplished during Christmas vacation without fail, even if it

Hark, Hark, A Bark!

Dogs, men's best friends, are not necessarily the neighbors' joy. A dog which whines or barks incessantly, often inciting his canine friends to join in a chorus can be a source of misery to those living nearby.

Dogs can be trained. They can be trained to stay at home and not annoy their neighbors with noise or vandalism.

Anyone living close to others has an obligation of contributing to the peace of the neighborhood without forcing his neighbors to complain to the police in order to have quiet evenings.

Does your dog bark enough to be annoying to others? Does he roam the streets? Take steps to stop him before your neighbor is a former friend and your purse is lighter because of a fine.

Town Hall - Council Meeting

By Dan Schmidt

Council established rate schedules for two village properties in its Oct. 13 meeting, and passed ordinances establishing rules and regulations for both.

One was the Town Hall, where a room may be rented for an evening from $5 to $35 by Stow residents, $10 to $40 for non-residents, with a few exceptions listed for such groups as Scouts, Community Council, United Fund, Etc. Hourly daytime rates were also scheduled for available space.

The other was Adell Durbin Park, setting a fee schedule for residents and non-residents for the use of the six shelters there, and establishing rules and regulations for park use.

Adell Durbin Park will soon have surfaced tennis courts, as Council passed a resolution accepting Tallmadge Asphalt & Grading Co.'s bid of $2,930 for the job.

Council also passed a resolution for sidewalks on the south side of Graham Rd. from Darrow Road to Lakeview Boulevard with the safety of walking school children in mind. Property owners on both sides of Graham Rd. within those boundaries will be assessed for the sidewalks.

The body voted to vacate a number of streets within the municipality, stating in the ordinance that such vacation is not detrimental to the general interest. (Vacating means the village is no longer responsible for the street's upkeep.)

Council also passed an ordinance authorizing the Director of Public Service to advertise for bids furnishing Stow with fire, extended coverage and liability insurance, as the present policies are nearing their due date.

Mrs. Eleanore Peterson, member of the Board of Zoning advised Council of the failure of Mr. Ruggles to conform to his zoning appeal variance. Council referred this matter to Law Director Werner.

Planning Commissioner Mertze Koski and Mr. Bobotek of Tri-County Planning Commission presented for Council discussion the proposed relocation of State Route 91. After explaining the need for advance planning to prevent the "potential growth strangulation" now being experienced by Cuyahoga Falls, Koski suggested that Council write the State Highway Director for specific information on the future of the proposed relocation and the financial part which Stow would be expected to play, as a first step toward pinpointing the new road. Clerk of Council was directed to write such a letter.

Please pass on the thanks of many residents and drivers to Stow Council for their prompt action in getting new street lights installed - especially those on Graham Rd. near Highland and Lakeview Schools. It was a great improvement for getting to the last football game.

Way Back When

STOW CEMETERIES by Frank Green

One of the first needs in any community is a place to bury our dead.

Life and death are certainties. As we respect or tolerate the living so we honor the memory of those we lose. The first death in Stow Township was that of a little boy 8 years old. He was the son of William Walker. His death was caused by the bite of a rattlesnake. We don't know his first name and his grave is not marked.

The first recorded burial in town in a place set aside for burials is in Darrowville Cemetery. Mrs. Gregory Powers was buried there in 1807.

The first recorded burial in Stow Cemetery was in 1809. Elizabeth Goodwin Gaylord Sr. She came here in a large party of relatives in 1809 and died that same year.

Burials were made around her; some of them marked with headstones. This part of the cemetery was called the "Old Ground".

April 16, 1956 the Trustees Virgil M. Thompson, Russell M. Thompson, Russell Stow and Horace Henshaw decided to raise $375.00 for the purpose of paying for a burying ground and fencing same. They purchased this land from Josiah Wetmore.

BURNING RULES

In answer to a reader's question:

There is an ordinance about trash-burning which makes any such burning which is annoying or harmful to neighbors or their property illegal and subject to a $50 fine. Specific footage away from their property is not stated. Specific hours are not stated. The ordinance is so written that consideration for your neighbor's and your own property and safety will keep you within the law. Lack of consideration (heavy smoke or ashes blowing toward a line of clothes or onto a painted house) as well as actual endangering of property from flames, can bring a complaint and you will be subject to fine.

The department urges more than usual care in burning trash and leaves during the dry weather.

Last week the Stow fire department's only action was on a call from the Akron Department. Two children (one a 12 year old Boy Scout) popping corn while their parents were out, accidentally started a grease fire. They phoned the operator for the fire department, she relayed the call to Akron, they relayed it back to Stow. Smoke damage in the amount of $75 was the only harm done. (A few minutes of precious time might be saved if all Stow people, young and old, memorized the phone number of their own Fire Department. OV 8-4421)

Welcome New Neighbors

Katy Zuppa of Darrow Rd. has enjoyed a special box of candy from our 90½ year young columnist Frank Green each birthday for many years, and recently he didn't forget again! Early in the morning he was at her door with chocolates for her before she went to work at Co-Op. But Katy worries about him, says he shouldn't be prancing down Darrow Rd. every day the way he does, with the increased traffic and bad hearing. She loves the candy, but loves him more. Incidentally Katy and her husband Ted celebrated their 20th anniversary the same day.

The week of October 4 was one for celebration for the Albert Steele family, 3837 Highland Ave. Oct. 4, David Steele, celebrated his 17th birthday. Oct. 11 Mrs. Steele observed her birthday, and she and her husband celebrated their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary. The Steeles also have two married daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fortune, 3888 Baumberger Rd., observed their 25th anniversary Oct. 2. They have 3 children, Sandra, at home, and a married son and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lamb, 3448 Marcella, are proud to report that son Stephen a senior at Howe Military School, Howe, Ind., was recently promoted to the rank of corporal, also is active in the school band as drum major.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schroeder of Maple Rd. were hosts to a happy surprise visit by Mr. and Mrs. John Wiebelt, their brother and sister in law from Napoleon, O., last weekend. Mrs. Wiebelt had recently broken her hip, and the trip to Schroeders was her first since her accident.

Danny Worcester, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Worcester, 3958 Stow Rd., fell while playing in a tree in his yard Wed., Oct. 12, and injured his nose.

Mrs. Howard Leas, 1195 Meadowbrook, is in St. Thomas Hospital after undergoing surgery.

Three Touchdowns Yield One Score; Two Are Nullified

The Ellet Orangemen were literally thrown all over the Bulldogs' field Friday night, but somehow managed to sneak away with an 8-6 victory. The Bulldogs won the game of statistics, but lost their homecoming.

Stow managed to score three times during the game, only to have two TD's nullified by penalties. One was a quarterback sneak by Kerr; the other, a 25 yd. run by halfback Sandercox.

Sandercox, 180 lb. senior, running the ball for Stow the first time this year, electrified the crowd with his dazzling, shifty running efforts. He ran the ball 11 times during the game, gaining 175 yds.

After three scoreless quarters, Ellet scored on a 5-yd. plunge which was set up by an Ellet interception of a Stow pass. With the accurate passing of quarterback Koski, and running by Settle and Sandercox, Stow marched the length of the field to pay dirt. Sandercox capped the drive with a tremendous run of 25 yds. putting the stands on their feet. The seventh Ellet tackler who hit "the horse" managed to pull him down in the end zone. The conversion for extra points failed.

After Stow scored and the ball changed hands twice, Ellet was forced to punt on the fourth down. The deep man for Stow fumbled, Ellet recovering on Stow's 20. By the efforts of Lynn and Paul Jackson and Shuett, Stow's defensive line stopped the Orangemen's threat.

Coach Fortner was very

meant replacement of a postponement-prone contractor.

The board evidently expects to hold to its plans to build the new elementary school at Fish Creek and Call Rds. regardless of Tri-County Planning Commission's opinion that another location would have been more desirable. Timing enters into the picture. Plans were to be viewed at the next board meeting.

(The Stow Press printing schedule precludes reporting the Oct. 19 meeting's action in this issue, as meetings are held Wednesday nights; composition of the paper must be completed Tuesday noon.)
