

Cross - Currents

by Robert Butler

One of the most exhausting political campaigns in history has drawn to a close. It was said to be exhausting for the candidates because of their rigorous travel schedules. But it was more than exhausting (perhaps the word is nauseating) for the voter who had to listen to and read about the "Issueless Issues" hashed and rehashed in every possible manner.

This condition was especially evident in the so-called "Great Debates." These verbal patter songs achieved the ultimate of mediocrity. During these four fiascoes, the watcher, obviously oblivious of his choice of turning off the set, was subjected to a barrage of words which continuously swirled about a subject, flattening and distorting whatever content the original issue may have had. A great swelling of relief should have been forthcoming when the fifth fiasco was averted by a decision through indecision.

What was completely confusing to the viewer was the fact that neither participant rode a white horse nor wore a white hat. There was just no way to be sure who the "bad guy" was.

Therefore, we went to the polls to decide who was the "good guy." This, added to what went before, brought our frustration to a complete fulfillment.

Trip Takes In Snake Charmers, Holy Land, Pyramids and Greece

(Cont. from last week)

By Kathy Martin

The J. Sam Biedler family, on their "long way home" trip back to Stow from the Philippines, flew from Bangkok, Thailand, to Calcutta, India, on May 25.

They found India hot and dry, but the first day there were driven by a pink turbaned driver of a blue station wagon over smooth roads for an all day visit to the Taj Mahal in Agra. With the help of an excellent guide they explored surrounding mosques, buildings and gardens. The Taj was built in 1631 by King Sha Jahan for his beautiful wife. They found it brilliant in the sun, made of white dazzling marble, though very dark and most interesting inside.

After visiting the Taj Mahal, the Biedlers stopped for cool refreshment and were fascinated by the traditional snake charmer, sitting cross-legged, wearing Indian garb of turban and flowing robe. His entire show depended largely on the number of rupees one was willing to donate. For one coin the flute was happy to accompany the snake in a demure exhibition; more coins suggested allveller tune and dance. For as much as five rupees, there would be a spine-tingling fight between the cobra and a mongoose.

They saw many wild green parrots, peacocks and parakeets while in India.

A plane trip to Karachi, Pakistan, a jet flight over desert wastelands and the clear, beautifully blue Mediterranean Sea took them to Jerusalem.

ment. Many individuals, struggling with the lack of issues, facts, and real differences, made a serious concerted effort to vote intelligently. But they were confronted with the fact that there were vast numbers who would be voting in much the same way as they chose a bar of soap or tube of toothpaste. Furthermore, they were confronted and sickened with the knowledge that in many contests, especially state and county races, numerous voters place an X on the spur of the moment, without any forethought or preparation. (Surveys have borne out this fact.) This is why a last name can be so politically potent. (Consider "Taft" in Ohio.) These serious voters saw "Get out and Vote" campaigns, with no mention of intelligent preparation, beckoning to those who had no business voting. All this, for mere statistical superiority. Finally, these voters were confronted with the realization that their votes would be cancelled, many times, by images created by public relations and advertising people. (Consider the "father-image of Eisenhower.")

Even though these individuals were faced with these insurmountable odds, vote they did as voter they must. For it is in terms of these dedicated voters that our system will some day be vindicated.

THE HOLY LAND

Sights in the Holy Land were inspiring. They visited Mt. Olives where Christ ascended into Heaven, the Garden of Gethsemane, and the cave of Christ's birth in Bethlehem. Hugh temples stand at each significant spot. They walked through narrow streets with walls of buildings on both sides.

To walk the streets of Jerusalem after dark, as Betty and Sam did for three hours, is to travel the span of time back to the ancient days of centuries long past. It was hard to imagine our modern world today in direct contrast to this civilization which has preserved so much of its age-old local color and tradition. Interesting to note was that the Arabs still live in black goatskin tents and in caves.

The countryside was quite picturesque as they traveled

Active Stow Folks Honored at 4-H Achievement Dinner

Mary Alice Savory joins Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mitten in admiring a 4-H cake made for the dinner.

Many honors came to Stow 4-H leaders and members Saturday night when the Darrow Street Grange hosted an Achievement Dinner Program for area clubs.

Stow- and Munroe Falls-ites honored for tenure as leaders were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Mitten, 12 years; Mrs. R. H. Burdette, five years; Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, four years; Miss Dawne Butler, Mrs. Monroe Carpenter, Mrs. Max Merrell, Mrs. Lawrence Ritchie, Mrs. Iris Steele, and Mrs. Arthur Yoder, two years.

Among clubs named Banner Clubs were Stow Honey Bees, Happy Homemakers, Stow Mix Master, and Stow-Wins.

Dawne Butler spoke to the gathering on "My Experience at Junior Leadership Camp", and Mary Alice Savory spoke on "My Experience at Ohio Club Congress."

Bob Benson, County Extension Agent in charge of 4-H, had the topic "What Makes 4-H Tick."

Stow Church Hosts Missionary Meeting

The second annual Missionary Convention continues through Sunday, Nov. 20, at Stow Alliance Church at the corner of Stow and Arndale Roads. There are meetings each evening at 7:30.

Eight missionaries will take part in the rally Sunday afternoon at 3:00. They will all appear in the costume relating to the tribe or nation in which they have been ministering.

A combined choir of 35 voices under the direction of Everett Prentiss will present the missionary drama "The Greatest Story Yet Untold."

Of special significance in these days is the nationalistic uprising in the provinces of Africa. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Martin, just returned from the new province Mali, will have first hand information of the "why and wherefore" of these uprisings.

The public is invited to all services.

Dept. Store In Center?

A strong and persistent rumor has it that the J. C. Penny Co. will soon start building in the Stow-Kent Shopping Center. An authoritative source told The Stow Press that no lease has been signed yet, but the rumor has a healthy chance of coming true.

Dawne Butler receives the banner for Stow Honey Bees, the club she advises, from County Extension Agent Bob Benson.

along the road to Bethlehem. As they spent three days in the Holy Land, the Biedlers were surprised at the lack of commercial activity contrary to reports they had heard about how very commercial the area had become.

A bitter feeling still prevails between the peoples of Jordan and Israel. Strong high barbed wire fencing and stone walls divide the two countries, and bomb holes are evidence remaining from the war.

After many hours of sight-seeing, they flew on, over the Dead Sea, the Red Sea and the Suez Canal, from Lebanon to Cairo, Egypt, where a camel ride

TOWN HALL

by Dan Schmidt

The Stow Development Co., developers of the Valley Forge Allotment, experienced another delay in their attempt to have their plat approved last Thursday, Nov. 10, at the regular Council meeting. It seems the Planning Commission and the Board of Zoning Appeals cannot agree on what they want the developer to do. However, a special joint meeting was to have been held between the two groups to iron out the problems Tuesday, Nov. 15.

In other action, Council approved a resolution by which a mapping error made forty years ago was corrected. The Summit County Board of Commissioners was authorized to change the map to agree with the legal description of the land.

Council also authorized the Mayor to enter into a three-year contract with Silver Lake for mutual police protection and with Northampton for mutual fire protection.

They all rode camels!

to see the Pyramids and Sphinxes is a "must". After enjoying dinner at a fabulous Egyptian restaurant, they flew via Egyptian Airlines to Athens, Greece, to spend four days.

Betty (Mrs. Biedler) says the trip was an education better than anyone can master from text books. The children enjoyed and explored all the places of interest everywhere the trip took them.

In Greece, the points of interest were the City of Corinth, the Acropolis, the Royal Place, museums, and the first Olympic Stadium, to mention the high points.

All too soon the family had to proceed - this time by British Eastern Airlines Jet - destination, Rome.

Way Back When

by Frank Green

RETROSPECTION

I have been writing for Peg Knight's little paper for near a year. This lovely morning - Nov. 11 - I am Thinking - if you call the odd mental impulse I now have - that. My sober classic features are familiar to a lot of people who know me only as "The NUT" who tells them of the natives who inhabited Stow in the "2ay Back When." I believe it will be of interest for you to know that Frank Green has always liked other things in life than musty ancient history.

Now here you have it!

Always since I was small boy, along with history and biography I have liked girls. I mean those dainty little creatures who eventually grow up and become the mothers of the human race.

My memory brings me a glowing picture - more than one - of some of those dear playmates of my youth, and the pleasure they freely gave me. Even as I liked them, they liked me. (Note: This sketch is only an interval before I go back to sober realities.)

I have just space for one story. Like all of my stories, it is TRUE.

I worked much of 1895 and '96 in Cleveland. Two of my Kent High School friends had been working in Cleveland for some time. I worked for W. J. Rattle, a mining engineer. His home was in Stow but his laboratory was in Cleveland. My friends introduced me to their girl friends.

I found these girls much the same as those I had known for long in Stow - very attractive. One of them was Mary Stewart, a daughter of N. Coe Stewart, the head of the music department in Cleveland schools.

The Cleveland baseball team won the pennant that fall. I asked Mary to go with me to a World Series game.

A rather embarrassing thing happened when I called on the phone to invite her. I did not know that she had an older sister, Gay. This young woman was quite a bit older than Mary. She was then a practicing attorney, but not married and living at home. When I called, I asked for Miss Stewart, and Gay answered.

I asked her to go with me to the game. She seemed to hesitate, but finally said, "Why, yes, Mr. Green, I would love to go. We talked awhile and I called

- Sympathy -

Sympathy is extended to Paul Baker, manager of the Lawson Store in Stow-Plaza, who lost his wife, Sylvia, Tuesday, November 8. She is also survived by two daughters, Cheryl and Darlene, both at home. Funeral services were held, Friday, November 11, from Gregory Funeral Home with Rev. Theodore Cord officiating.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Robert B. Freeman, 41, of 3440 Marsh Rd., who passed away in Akron City Hospital, November 9, following a year of ill health. He is survived by his wife, Mary Frances, and two sons, Robert F. and William A. and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Swaney of Parma, Ohio.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. C. E. McCracken (Addie), 82, who died at home after a long illness, Sunday, November 13. She is survived by her husband, Curtis, a daughter, Mrs. Ford Grubb of Munroe Falls, a son, Leo, of Cuyahoga Falls, two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Services were held at the Gregory Funeral Home Tuesday, Nov. 15.

FAMILY NIGHT

Stow United Presbyterian Church will have a covered dish dinner Friday, Nov. 18, at 6:45. There will also be singing and a play for this "Family Night." The Snyders, Millars, and Cosbys are in charge of this event.

her Mary. Then Gay said, "It isn't me you want, but Mary."

That put it up to me and I asked for both of them, but only got Mary.

I called several times at the Stewart home with some other men. The girls had a cousin, Bonnie, visiting them. So we had a Mary, Gay, and Bonnie time!

CLUB NEWS

Stow Child Study Club will hold a Chili Supper on Friday, November 18, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church. All proceeds will be used to further the club's Dental Welfare project which has benefited Stow children in need in years past.

An added attraction of the evening will be a Postage Sale which will feature wrapped white elephant gifts mailed from many U.S. cities by friends of the club members. These parcels will be sold, sight unseen, at $.50 each.

Maplewood Park Garden Club will meet tonight (Nov. 17) at 8 p.m. in the club house where an election of officers will be held. Hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. Leroy Mader, assisted by Mrs. Murray Dumesco, Mrs. William Ryan and Mrs. William Selzer.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Everett Combs who will display a varied assortment of unusual Christmas decorations.

Highland Elementary School PTA is sponsoring a 'Popcorn' sale through the school. A $1.00 package holds three reusable refrigerator containers of popcorn. Mrs. Ben Kester and Mrs. John Pack, Ways and Means Committee, are in charge of the sale.

Stow Science Club (Project 38) will tour the Akron Municipal Airport under the supervision of Shorty Fulton, Friday, November 15. The membership of ten pupils of Highland Elementary School will be accompanied by several interested parents.

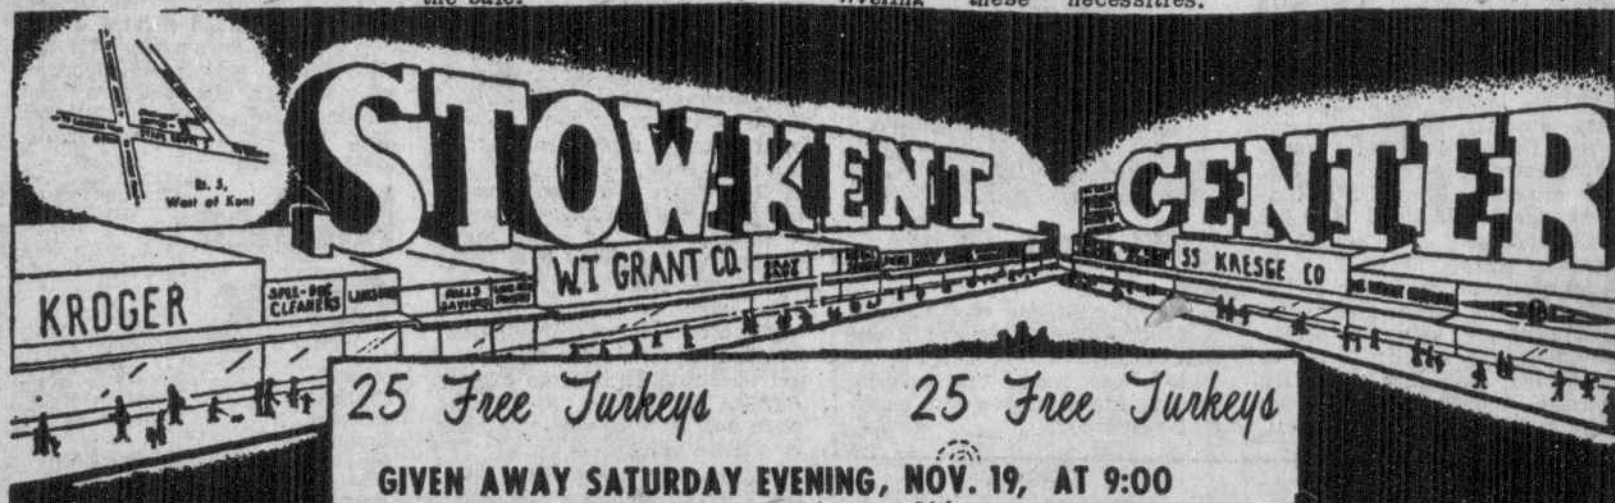

Through the combined efforts of Circle 18 and Circle 19 of Holy Family Parish, personal items, including clothing, magazines, talc, combs and soap have been collected to be given to the forgotten guests of Hawthorne Mental Hospital during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Mrs. Raymond Brayo, 2386 Liberty Rd., an employee of the hospital, is assisting members in collecting and delivering these necessities.

There will be a Thanksgiving Day Square Dance, Thursday, November 24, 9:00-12:00 p.m., held at the Darrow Street Grange Hall, Route 91, Darrowville, Ohio. Charles Call and his orchestra will furnish the music and refreshments will be available.

Eugene Dominic, Curriculum Director of Stow Schools, was the featured speaker when Riverview PTA met at the school Tuesday, Nov. 15. Students of the school had drawn pictures of what their dads looked like to them which were on display at this meeting.

Refreshments were furnished by first grade mothers, with Mrs. Douglas Hammond as chairman.

Warren-DeFago Nuptials

Judith Diane Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal R. Warren, 3440 Edgewood Drive, became the bride of Ronald Lee DeFago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel DeFago, 377½ Dorwill Dr., Akron, Saturday, November 5, in the Church in Silver Lake, with Rev. John H. Keefe officiating.

Following a reception held in the church social hall the couple spent a short honeymoon in Philadelphia where they will live during the time Seaman DeFago is stationed there with the Navy. A 1960 graduate of Coventry High, he served one and a half years in the Naval Reserves before beginning two years of active duty.

Mrs. DeFago is a 1959 graduate of Stow High School. She also attended Kent State University for one year and has been employed at Jones Buick in Cuyahoga Falls.

Julie Fuerst, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl, wearing a candy pink velveteen dress. Cecil Blessing, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as the best man. Gerald Warren, brother of the bride, and Donald Maxwell, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Patricia Werling was the maid of honor while Shelia Cahill and Mrs. Cecil Blessing, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids, wearing identical gowns of candy pink velveteen.

Betrothal

Dr. and Mrs. Charles No. Winslow, 3288 Pattyann Dr., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Emily Senta, to David Edwin Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Jones, 374 N. River Rd.

The bride-elect is a junior at Stow High School. Her fiancé, a graduate of Stow High, is attending Kent State University and is employed by the Co-operative Enterprises of Akron. He is currently working at the Stow store.

The young people plan to be married at the Kent Methodist Church on Sunday, December 18, at 3:30 p.m. The custom of Open Church will be observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vitone formerly of 3634 Adaline Dr., have recently moved into their newly built home at 3362 Sycamore Dr.

Norman Russell is recovering from a bout with virus pneumonia.

Joe Sherlock, Moreland Ave., was prevented from working on the Boys Baseball Pancake Supper as he planned by a call that his father was seriously ill in Hamilton, O., where Joe rushed without delay.

Speaking of the Pancake Supper, over 1,000 persons were served as much as they could eat last Saturday and Sunday. Four turkeys were given as door prizes - one each to Bob Parrish of Graham Rd., who directed that his be given to a needy family; to J. H. Pierce of Akron; to R. Dreisbaugh of Cuyahoga Falls; and to Jimmy Leach of Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Loucks of Lakeview Blvd. spent last weekend with friends in Lafayette, Inc., and saw the Michigan State-Purdue football game.

Halley Johnson went all the way to Colorado to shoot an elk, but didn't get one.

STORK CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Davis, 1481 Gangle Dr., welcomed their third son, Richard Charles (8 lbs. 3 ozs.), on October 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mist, 4234 Osage St., who have a family of four daughters, were pleased to welcome a son, Saturday, November 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shoemaker, 4214 Kenneth Rd., proud parents of four sons, welcomed a daughter, Carole Lyn (7½ lbs.) on September 30.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gano, 4233 Osage St., announce the arrival of their third son, Timothy Todd (7 lbs. 15 ozs.), on October 7.

Welcome New Neighbors

After nearly four years of traveling home only on weekends, William Gano, 4233 Osage St., a foreman at Bedford's Ford Plant, moved his family, wife Joyce, and sons, Jerry, 8 years old and Teddy, 2 years old, into their first home, which is located in Maplewood Park, on September 1. Their hometown was Clarion, Pa., where they both grew up and married. Bill, a graduate of Clarion-Limestone High School, served four years in diesel engineering with the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Baltimore, sailing the Mediterranean Sea and Pacific Ocean. Joyce graduated from Ashtabula High School and was employed in final inspection at Owens Illinois Glass Co. Their third son, Timmy, was born shortly after the Ganoes moved to Stow.

When there is a spare moment their time is spent putting around the new home and lawn. As they prefer living in a small town both Bill and Joyce are very happy to have moved into what they call the friendliest neighborhood. Joyce is a member of Circle 18 of Holy Family Parish and hopes to become more active when the new baby is a little older.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mullins (Barbara) are still getting settled in their new home at 1270 Meadowbrook Blvd. where they moved just three weeks ago from Uniontown. Barbara is originally from Akron and Roy from Richwood, W. Va. They say they already feel at home in Stow. Proud parents of five children from 18 months to 12 years, they look forward each year to interesting camping trips and hope to travel extensively in the near future.

Roy, formerly a Kroger store manager, is now purchasing agent for Lujan Restaurants. Barbara sells Tupperware Plastic containers and kitchen supplies, giving parties in the home. Having worked on the parent advisory board of a Home and School League, she is very interested in PTA activities.

Mrs. Dorothy Bold wishes to express her thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness in her recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Davis (Phyllis), 4979 Hudson Dr., moved to Stow in September from North Akron where they had lived for ten years after earlier days in Clarksburg, W. Va. Mr. Davis has been a welder for nine years since completing a special training course at the B & W Co. in Barberton, and at the present time is associated with Ford Motor Co. in Bedford. He is an active committeeman in the union.

Phyllis, a graduate of Victory High School in Clarksburg, was employed in an office doing typing and bookkeeping before their marriage. Daughter Debbie (10) is a pupil at Highland School where Phyllis is a room mother for the fifth grade. Interested in garden club activity, she is also a troop chairman for Girl Scout Troop 328. Bowling and golf are favorite pastimes.

End Season
With Tie Game

Friday night saw the Stow Bulldogs traveling to Wadsworth for the final game of this season.

Wadsworth scored in the opening period on an 18-yard pass play which capped a 67-yard drive. Their point-after-touchdown was good, and the score at the end of the first period was 8-0 in favor of the Grizzlies.

Stow came back strong in the second quarter and scored on a 70-yard touchdown drive, capped with John Sandercox plunging over from the 2. A pass from quarterback Kip Koski to senior halfback Ralph Richardson was good for the extra points. The score at halftime: 8-8.

The score remained tied for the third quarter.

Midway into the fourth, Stow punted to the Wadsworth 39-yard line. The receiver was hit pronto - he fumbled - Stow recovered!

The Bulldogs immediately marched to the 11-yard line, where Sandercox bulled over for six points. The extra point attempt failed, and Stow led, 14-0, with 4 minutes, 30 seconds remaining in the game.

Wadsworth moved to the Stow 1-yard line, where they had first down and goal to go. The Bulldogs held the Grizzlies for three plays but the Wadsworth quarterback sneaked over for T.D. on the last down.

Stow's defensive line, which didn't agree with the referee's T.D. call, stopped Wadsworth's extra-point attempt. The score, with 1:08 remaining, was a 14-14 deadlock.

Following the Wadsworth kickoff, Stow had possession of the ball on their own 30-yard line with 42 seconds left! Two pass plays from Koski to Sandercox moved the ball 67 yards. As John ("the horse") caught the second pass, he was hit and downed on the 3-yard line. Just as he was getting up, the gun sounded and the game was over.

The record for the season: 1 Win, 6 Losses, 2 Ties.

HIGH WAYS

by Sylvia Carson

(Note: Sylvia is subbing for Terry Moore while Terry recoups from mononucleosis.)

Stow High students' activities accelerate with the season. Closing this football season with optimism for the next, our team camethrough with a tie in Wadsworth. Enthusiasm now swells for basketball.

The newly elected Sr.-Y-Teen basketball team is as follows: Forwards: Charlyne Perrine, Judy Thomas, Marge Worcester, Janet Glass. Guards: Dawne Butler, Pat Belcher, Sharon Pimlott. The substitute list includes Nancy Wuchter, Bonnie LaForme, Anita Csonka and Donna Finney.

Our band director, Mr. Mitchell, is formulating plans for a concert band next semester. The past season was celebrated with a banquet for band members.

Academically, the FTA's found their participation in National Education Week very interesting....chemistry students welcome Mr. Richard Blake as their new teacher....future college hopefuls braved the cold rain and mud to attend College Night at Manchester High last Wednesday.

Sharon Pimlott celebrated her sixteenth birthday with swimming and a slumber party last Saturday....and Sunday. Swimming at the Y - food, games, bonfires, and everything except sleep. Seventy friends helped Sharon celebrate.

We miss you, Terry. Get well fast!

Munroe Falls Pipeline

by Vanda A. Wilson

AT VILLAGE HALL

Mayor Donald Lyle, Jr., has issued strict enforcement of Ordinance 1958-6, the "No Hunting" ban for Munroe Falls. Only Village residents will be permitted to hunt on their own property, or those wishing to hunt must have written permission of the property owner. Even so, the law forbids firing firearms within 500 feet of any home or highway. Offenders will be liable to a $50 fine.

Ten bids are now under examination for a new 1961 police cruiser by Council members. Decision will be made at Council's next regular session.

WCS ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

New officers for the forthcoming year were elected for the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Munroe Falls Methodist Church when members met at the Village Hall Nov. 9. They are: Mrs. Snowden Kline, president; Mrs. Clifford Shearer, vice president; Mrs. Herbert Lauer, secretary; Mrs. Walter Belcher, treasurer; Mrs. Earl Wilson, historian and publicity chairman.

Hostesses were Mrs. William Shakespeare and Mrs. David Miller.

The Spaghetti Supper planned for Nov. 12 was postponed.

A Christmas Party and gift exchange will be held at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Roberts, wife of the church's new minister, at 1716 Chestnut Blvd., Cuyahoga Falls. Mrs. Ernest Green will assist her for this party which will be December 14.

Stow-Munroe Grandmothers Club will entertain their husbands with a covered dish supper Friday, Nov. 18, at 6:30 in Village Hall. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lester North, Mrs. Ray Fortune and Mrs. G. A. Ruggles. A social evening will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Radak, 405 N. Main St., will celebrate their 19th wedding anniversary Nov. 20. The Radaks have two daughters.

Five members of the Munroe Falls Garden Club, Mrs. Monroe Carpenter, Mrs. Owen Oakes, Mrs. Snowden Kline, Mrs. Earl Wilson, and Mrs. Henry Kissamore, attended the Akron Garden Forum luncheon at the Sheraton Hotel Nov. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reese and their sons, Lee and Larry, have left the Village for the west coast where they will make their home. The Reese family lived in Munroe Falls for many years, formerly on Northmoreland, more recently on Castle Dr. Due to Mrs. Reese's health, they found it advisable to settle in a warmer climate. They will be sadly missed for they were very active in church work and were good friends and neighbors.

Saturday, Nov. 19, marks the sixteenth birthday of "Liz" Gerheart, daughter of the Anthony Gerhearts, 144 S. River Rd. Liz is a Stow High junior.

W.G. Shorts Celebrate Golden Wedding Here

Celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Wade G. Short, who were married fifty years ago in Goshen, Indiana.

Their daughter, Mrs. Walter K. Peterson, entertained with an open house for their relatives at her home, 4279 Kent Rd., where the Shorts stay when vacationing from their Miami home.

Mr. Short, a co-founder of Hamel Business College and Akron Law School, has retired from active business life, where he also was a contractor.

Mrs. Short was always active in church work at West Congregational Church when they lived in this vicinity. She was also active in Akron Womens City Club, Cuyahoga Falls Womens Club, and the Monday Study Club.

Stow Junior Mothers Club is touring Summit County Juvenile Court this evening.

Election of officers and a Christmas arrangement contest will take place at the Charring Cross Garden Club meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. John Beckley, 3549 Charring Cross Drive on November 28 at 8 p.m.

Stow Players, Inc., wishes to announce the dates for the new show, 'Suds in Your Eye'. This 3-act comedy, written by Jack Kirkland and directed by John H. Buckley, will be presented in the Player's Room of Stow Town Hall the first three weekends in December (2-3, 9-10, and 16-17). Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Heading the cast of 18 are Billie Godfrey, Betty Jayne Powell and Marge Forest.

A 28-minute film, "The Valiant Heart", concerning rheumatic fever, furnished by the Summit County Heart Association, will be shown at Highland PTA's meeting Monday, Nov. 21, at 1 p.m. in the auditorium. Dr. Joseph Kloss, Cuyahoga Falls pediatrician and Children's Hospital staff member, will be present to answer questions. An informative pamphlet giving the facts about rheumatic fever will be distributed to the audience.

Brownie Troop 579, under the leadership of Mrs. Nathan Berman, will present the colors.
